COORDS system variable

Function Description:

The COORDS system variable is used to controls the format and update frequency of coordinates on the status line.

Type : Integer
Saved in : Registry
Initial value : 1
Range : 0 ~ 2

System Variable Value:

0 : the absolute coordinates of pointing device is updated only when specific points.
1 :the absolute coordinates of pointing device is updated continuously.
2 :The absolute coordinates of pointing device is updated continuously except when a point, distance, or angle is requested. In that case, relative polar coordinates are displayed instead of X and Y. The Z values always display as absolute coordinates.

Online URL: https://www.kb2.gstarcad.com.my/article.php?id=1387