

SYSWINDOWS command

2376 GstarCAD MY /KW August 23, 2021 CAD Commands 0 1110

The SYSWINDOWS command is used to arrange windows and icons when application program sharing a window with external application program.

Command Access:

Ribbon : View > User Interface > Tile Horizontally

Menu : Window > Tile Horizontally

Command : SYSWINDOWS

Command Prompts:

Enter an option [Cascade/tile Horizontal/ tile Vertical/Arrange icons]:

Relative Glossary:

Cascade:

Arrange a lot of windows for easily visiting by windows cascade.

Tile Horizontal:

Arrange open drawings in horizontal and non-overlapping pattern. Users could check drawings by line. If out of space, it will add other columns to arrange windows.

Tile Vertical:

Arrange open windows in vertical non-overlapping pattern. Users could check drawings by column. If out of space, it will add other lines to arrange windows.

Arrange icons:

Arrange window icons.

Minimize the drawing and display open drawings on the bottom of drawing area.

Online URL: <https://www.kb2.gstarcad.com.my/article.php?id=2376>